Agenda:

1. Establishment of an association;
2. Adoption of bylaws/Membership in the association;
3. Elections;
4. Address of the association.

Decisions:

1. Establishment of an association

Upon the president's proposal, there is established an association within the meaning of Articles 60 and following of the Swiss Civil Code, scientific in nature, the

INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE ON SMOKING ISSUES
(I.C.O.S.I.)

with place of establishment in Geneva.

2. Adoption of bylaws/Membership in the association

The president took note that all of the members present possess a copy of the draft bylaws of the association with which they are familiar. As there were no remarks thereon, the meeting adopted unanimously the draft bylaws as the bylaws of the association.

A copy of the bylaws so accepted is annexed to these minutes as an integral part thereof.

As a result of these bylaws, all of the founding members represented declared their membership in the association.
